Conejo Valley Hidden Gems

An easy 45-minute drive from Los Angeles, Conejo Valley offers all of the fun yet none of the crowds. With nearly 12,000 acres of open space, visitors can relax and unwind as they experience the area's hidden gems. At the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library and Museum, guests can walk on board the actual Air Force One aircraft that flew seven U.S. presidents and explore a replica of the White House Oval Office. America's ultimate guilty pleasure, The Bachelor/The Bachelorette, starts in Conejo Valley with the iconic Bachelor Mansion tucked away in Agoura Hills. Conejo Valley attractions featured in various episodes include nearby Zuma Beach and Malibu Wine Safaris. Conejo Valley also offers something for those who have already found love. From gorgeous rural settings to polished interiors, Conejo Valley is the perfect wedding destination for brides and grooms. Soak in majestic views by hiking, biking or horseback riding through the area's 140 miles of public multi-purpose trails.

Conejo Valley's Unique Drink & Dining Experiences

From breweries to bars and restaurants to wine tastings, Conejo Valley is the perfect getaway for any foodie. The Original Pizza Cookery is famous for its garlic and cheese rolls, which they make a million of by hand every year. The Old Place, nestled in the Santa Monica Mountains, is straight out of an Old West movie and offers food cooked over an open fire. At nearby Malibu Wine Safaris, guests can discover the beautiful wines of the Santa Monica Mountains while mingling with exotic animals including the famous Stanley the Giraffe. Ladyface Ale Companie is one of Los Angeles County's first revival craft breweries and the first in Conejo Valley featuring award-winning, hand-crafted ales. Craft-cocktail bar Oak & Iron is known for its speakeasy vibe offering an elevated experience for guests. Adventurous foodies can relish the Hogzilla, a succulent half pig's head on a platter at Twisted Oak Tavern or head to The Park Restaurant & Bar to devour the 2lb. Tomahawk Ribeye.
